BAMTM

The patented combination of Butorphanol, Azaperone and Medetomidine.

This innovative anesthesia combination has been used in thousands of cervid immobilizations, as well as a number of controlled research studies with excellent results.

There's nothing like it.

- Smooth inductions with times equal to or shorter than Telazol/Xylazine
- Great analgesia and relaxation
- Limited increase in body temperature
- Good blood oxygen levels
- Proven effective for performing laparoscopic artificial insemination and semen collection
- Rapid reversals with smooth recovery

BAM formulation in each Kit is already pre-mixed for you with reversal drugs also included.

PDFA "PAC" FUND GUN RAFFLE ***

Pennsylvania Deer Farmers Association's Yearling Buck Antler Competition

Sponsored by PDFA and will be held at the 2020 PA Deer and Outdoor Expo in Harrisburg PA

This competition will consist of two categories, "Largest Non-Typical Yearling" and "Largest Typical Yearling". The only way to enter the competition is if you purchased or won a semen straw at the PA Deer and Outdoor Expo April 1st, 2017. There will be a $2000 cash prize awarded to the winning buck in each category.

The donors of the semen at the PA Deer and Outdoor Expo, 2017 that produce the largest yearling in each category will receive a $500 cash prize and a Lifetime membership to PDFA, "valued at $1000". They will also get a full-page ad and article featuring their farms in The PDFA quarterly newsletter.

Rules for the contest

1. All competition semen used in the 2017 breeding season is eligible for the competition on 2019 yearling bucks.
2. Every buck in the competition must be DNA certified. PDFA reserves the right to extract DNA from the winning antlers to verify pedigree.
3. All antlers must be scored by an official SCI scorer either at the event or have an official score sheet that is signed by an official scorer at the event. If the winning antlers are not scored at the event, they may be subject to a rescore.
4. The breeder's own spread credit on the antlers will be honored but must be accompanied by a clear head-on photo of buck to verify the spread.... 1 1/2" will be credited to beam length for burrs on cut off antlers.
5. All breeders participating in competition must be a PDFA member and in good standing at the time of entering antlers in competition.
